Allegheny Financial Group Announces ‘Good Neighbor’ Donations to Four Area Organizations

Donations help to support the efforts of neighboring organizations of Allegheny Financial Group that strongly impact the North Hills community.

Pittsburgh, PA, January 13, 2015 — Allegheny Financial Group, a financial planning and investment management firm, announces their first annual ‘Good Neighbor’ donation to four neighboring North Hills organizations. Donation recipients include, HEARTH, North Hills Food Bank, Northgate School District, and the YMCA – North Boroughs Community Center. The contributions will go toward funding specific projects at each organization.

James J. Browne, founding partner of Allegheny Financial Group states, “We recognize the immense needs of our local communities, and are happy that Allegheny can do a small part to help.”

To donate, or learn more about these local organizations’ missions and efforts, visit: HEARTH at www.hearth-bp.org, North Hills Food Bank at www.northhillsfoodbank.org, Northgate School District at www.northgate.k12.pa.us, and YMCA – North Boroughs at www.ymcaofpittsburgh.org/locations/north-boroughs-ymca.
